

Review

Task 1

Complete the sentences with words from the given paragraphs. Change the form where necessary. The first letter of each word is given.

1. Women have made astonishing progress in their competition with men in business and professional world. (Para.1)
2. It's said that ancient Chinese soldiers slipped paper message into mooncakes to help fight against the invaders. (Para.3)
3. Her heart pounded , not knowing whether she should accept his flowers or not in front of the class. (Para.5)

Explore 1 Building your language

4. He has grown up with genuine respect for books, but he has never thought of going into bookselling business. (Para.7)
5. Sidney returned to his hometown where he resumed his education. (Para.8)
6. The film tells of an engineer who has chosen to spare nothing in pursuit of his dream. (Para.10)
7. The health organization can offer community members the opportunity to obtain information necessary and explore choices in making difficult health care decisions. (Para.15)
8. Many people will choose to dismiss this idea completely, while others may be more open-minded and accept it. (Para.16)

Task 2

Complete the sentences with the expressions below. Change the form when necessary.

leaf through have no idea a variety of

3. I ~~put ... in touch with~~ believe in go through

be lost in if it wasn't / weren't for sb. / sth.

1. You'll go through difficult times, and suffer, and learn.
2. I believe in being strong when everything seems to be going wrong.
3. I leafed through the pages of the test paper and smiled to myself because the questions seemed familiar to me.

Explore 1 Building your language

Task 2

Complete the sentences with the expressions below. Change the form when necessary.

leaf through have no idea a variety of

3. I ~~_____ put ... in touch with~~ believe in go through

be lost in if it wasn't / weren't for sb. / sth.

4. This old building could have been pulled down

if it hadn't been for some collectors choosing it to be their private storage.

5. They had no idea what they were about to face at this great turning point in their career.

Explore 1 Building your language

Task 2

Complete the sentences with the expressions below. Change the form when necessary.

leaf through have no idea a variety of

3. I put ... in touch with believe in go through

be lost in if it wasn't / weren't for sb. / sth.

6. Would you please put me in touch with Professor Johnson from the career planning office in the university.

7. Bothered by the dilemma of his career, Mark was lost in thought and didn't hear the knock on the door.

Explore 1 Building your language

Task 2

Complete the sentences with the expressions below. Change the form when necessary.

leaf through have no idea a variety of

3. I ~~_____ put ... in touch with~~ believe in go through

be lost in if it wasn't / weren't for sb. / sth.

8. Cars, phones, jobs, products, lifestyles – at no other point in human history have there been such a variety of choices.

Explore 1 Building your language

Task 3

Complete the sentences by choosing suitable words below to collocate with the italicized words.

translate

lean

need

pursuit

1. Despite losing the game, she chose to lean over and hug her rival before leaving the tennis court.
2. When I asked for his opinion, he mumbled something which I translated as agreement.
3. Those who are most promising in their pursuit of arts often choose to study in France, a place of romance and art.

Explore 1 Building your language

Task 3

Complete the sentences by choosing suitable words below to collocate with the italicized words.

translate

lean

need

pursuit

4. Kev leaned against the table where he sat, elbows propped, lost in thought about where to travel on Christmas days.
5. Some countries have taken a new attitude toward immigration since their economy is much in need of more productive young men.
6. It stands to reason that more attention will translate into greater learning.

Explore 1 Building your language

Task 3

Complete the sentences by choosing suitable words below to collocate with the italicized words.

translate

lean

need

pursuit

7. They all talked about the need for a change in their attitudes and habits if they wanted to achieve greater success.
8. There's sufficient evidence that the pursuit of wealth sometimes leads smart people to make wrong decisions and do stupid things.

Task 5

Complete the passage with suitable words from the word bank. You may not use any of the words more than once.

lost	anger	appreciated	course	attending misdirected	quiet	reverence	convinced	silence
voice	uttered	lectured	sound	pursuing

A turning point is the time when a big event happens that changes the 1) course of our life.

Explore 1 Building your language

My mother 2) convinced me to study business in a community college although I had no real interest in business. I might not have finished college if it hadn't been for the two astonishing sentences that an economics professor 3) uttered. On a fall morning, when the professor 4) lectured about macroeconomic theory, I began reading a novel by Jack London. I was 5) lost in my reading so that I didn't notice that the professor was walking toward me. When he reached my desk and snatched the book from my hands, I was terrified by the absolute 6) silence in classroom. However, instead of criticizing me, the professor said in a very loud 7) voice: “This student won't be spending the rest of his life studying columns of debits and credits. He's interested in literature.” He pronounced the word “literature” with genuine 8) reverence.

Explore 1 Building your language

I spent the next few weeks pondering his reaction. If an economics professor valued literature as much as or even more than economics, perhaps the study of literature would be something worth 9) pursuing. Then I changed my major to English, raised my grades, and 10) appreciated school for the first time. Now I'm doing what I'm really interested: writing books.